Dear Sir:

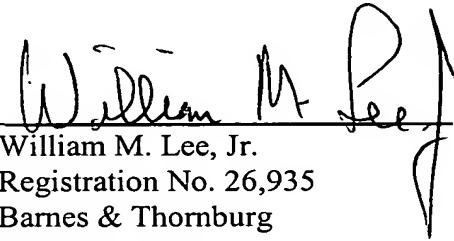

The communication dated January 11, 2005 deals with the declaration as submitted with the present application, and indicates that the declaration is inadequate because it has not been signed on behalf of Dr. Rushbrooke, who is now deceased.

Submitted herewith is a further declaration, signed by Justin Rushbrooke, who is Dr. Rushbrooke's son, and who is also the Executor of the Estate of John Gordon Rushbrooke. The declaration provides the address of Justin Rushbrooke and his status as executor. As such, it is believed that the enclosed declaration therefore meets the requirements of the Patent and Trademark Office for a declaration, but should anything further be required, it would be appreciated if the Patent and Trademark Office would contact the undersigned.

February 3, 2005

Respectfully submitted,
